

School Board Employs New Truant Officer

MRS. MARY M. YATES

The Circleville Board of Education, meeting in regular session last night, employed a new attendance officer, four teachers and a custodian for the high school.

Mrs. Melvin (Mary M.) Yates, 345 Lewis Road, was hired by the board to fill the vacancy of truant officer left by the retirement of Walter Denman.

Fritz Jacobs, superintendent, pointed out to board members that the official title of Mrs. Yates' position is to be Child Accountant Officer. The position has formerly been referred to as "truant officer" and "attendance officer."

Mrs. Yates is presently the executive and case worker secretary of the Pickaway County Child Welfare Board. She has held that position since May 1958. She also has seven years experience working with the Division of Aid for the Aged.

A life-long resident of Circleville, she is a graduate of CHS and attended Ohio University at Athens. She is married and the mother of two children, Nancy and Mary Anne. Her husband, Melvin, is associated with the Yates Buick Co.

Teaching positions filled last night included a boy's physical education teacher and wrestling coach. Employed for the job was David LaBounty. He holds a BS degree from Ohio State University.

The board accepted the resignation of Walter Denman.

Romney Paces Primary Poll

Former automaker George Romney was Michigan's biggest vote-getter Tuesday as he ran unopposed for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Romney, former president of American Motors, had tallied 380,540 votes with 4,516 of the state's 5,199 precincts counted while Democratic Gov. John B. Swainson, also unopposed, had 266,066 votes.

As expected, Swainson ran ahead in the normally Democratic stronghold of Detroit and Wayne County, while Romney, mentioned as a possible GOP presidential candidate, held a big lead in the usually Republican outstate area.

The man was identified by police as LeRoy F. Keller of Akron, an aluminum siding installer.

New School Head Meets with Board

Fritz Jacobs, new superintendent of Circleville schools, attended his first regular session of the Circleville Board of Education last night which adjourned shortly before 1 a. m. today.

Richard G. Bowers, board member, was absent from the meeting due to a convalescence period following a recent illness. Present for the meeting were Robert L. Brehmer Jr., president; Mrs. Rosemary Mader, Robert Elsea, E. G. Grigg, all board members; Virgil Cress, business manager; and Miss Mary Ellen Rader, clerk.

The board was confronted with several problems, some still unsolved, prior to the school opening Sept. 4.

As pointed out by the new superintendent, one of the major problems will be transportation of some pupils to and from school.

JACOBS, who recently met with bus drivers, noted that a revision of bus schedules will have to be made to accommodate overloading that was apparent at the end of the 1961-62 school term.

A revision of bus schedules may be made after school opens Sept. 4, Jacobs said, in addition to the daily starting and closing time of classes. Adjustments, if necessary, will be announced later.

Wayne Twp. was pointed out by Jacobs as being a particular area where the school day is too long because of transportation problems.

Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22, was removed from the school calendar as a holiday by unanimous decision of the board. Jacobs questioned the minimum state requirement of 175 days of instruction, since students report on May 29 only to receive their final grade cards. After due consideration, the holiday was removed from the "free day" list to meet state standards.

Other action approved by the board included awarding a Circleville High School diploma to Sgt. Robert Miller. The sergeant, a member of the armed services since 1939, complied with all necessary state requirements after completing his education in the service. He attended school here before entering the service.

The English Merit Society (EMS) of the high school was re-established during last night's lengthy session of the school heads. The honorary society had been abolished at the end of last school year. Mrs. Clark Will was given an increment as adviser for the group of sophomores, juniors and seniors who excel in English.

A MOTION was approved authorizing Crigg as the local delegate to the Ohio School Board Association.

350,000 Ohioans Get Federal Aid

$12.9 Million Paid During Month of May

WASHINGTON (AP)—More than 350,000 Ohioans received $12.9 million in four major types of federal assistance in May, latest figures from the Health, Education and Welfare Department show.

A state breakdown shows May payments of $7,147,076 in old age assistance, $4,113,247 in aid to dependent children, $271,880 for aid to the blind and $1,176,366 in aid to the totally and permanently disabled.

Payments increased over those of the month before in all categories except aid to dependent children.

Ohio's payments in aid for dependent children represented a one per cent drop from the previous month, compared with a national decline of only four-tenths of one per cent. The department said it was the first such drop since August 1960.

In Ohio, 247,466 persons received aid for dependent children. The average payment for each recipient was $29.35.

Ohioans receiving old age assistance numbered 88,142 with an average payment of $81.09. The number of recipients declined slightly, but the total amount of money was 2.9 per cent over April.

Aid to the blind went to 3,462 Ohioans, each receiving an average of $78.53. Both the number of recipients and the total payments were up slightly from the month before.

Payments for the permanently and totally disabled went to 15,164 persons in Ohio. The average payment was $77.58. Total recipients were up 2.2 per cent and total payments up 5.3 per cent from April.

Moeller 'Deal' Is Denied by White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Walter H. Moeller, D-Ohio, denied today he "has made a deal" with the Kennedy administration and released a White House letter to back him up.

"I never even so much as made a contact and I don't intend to," Moeller said of his Republican opponent's statement that the congressman had made a deal for a political job in Washington in case he is defeated in the November election.

Homier E. Abele is Moeller's GOP opponent in the 10th Ohio district.

The White House letter, signed by Presidential Assistant Lawrence F. O'Brien, confirmed Moeller's statement by saying "you have never discussed such a possibility with anyone in the White House."

O'Brien said he learned of Abele's statement when he saw a clipping from the Athens Messenger of July 22.

1,294 Ohioans Treated With Thalidomide Drug

WASHINGTON (AP)—A state-by-state breakdown issued by Welfare Secretary Anthony J. Celebrezze on results of the still incomplete investigation into distribution of thalidomide tablets on an experimental basis in the United States includes these figures for Ohio:

Total number of doctors receiving drug, 108; reports of interviews, 94; total patients treated, 1,294; women of child-bearing age, 297; doctors with drug on hand, 7; quantity on hand, 1,908.

Jamaica Says U.S. Can Build Base There

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP)—If the United States ever needs a military base in newly independent Jamaica, it can establish one without commitments, Prime Minister Sir Alexander Bustamante said Tuesday night.

Bustamante told a news conference the United States has not asked for such a base nor should his statement be construed as an invitation to Washington to set one up on this Caribbean island 90 miles south of Cuba.

Bustamante said the United States and Jamaica "are friendly nations and the United States can come in when and if it pleases."

The United States maintained bases in Jamaica during World War II under the destroyers-for-bases deal made by the United States and Great Britain. The bases were returned after the war.

Since then, the bulwarks of U.S. defense of the Caribbean approach to the Panama Canal have been Puerto Rico and the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Britain handled Jamaica's foreign affairs before the island became independent Monday.

Bustamante declined to say whether he discussed an increase in U.S. aid to Jamaica with Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, who led the U.S. delegation to the Jamaican independence celebrations.

Norfolk Group Still Seeking Improvements

Delegation Negative On Assessments for City Water Facilities

A move to obtain improved living conditions in Circleville's Turner Addition provided a brief but stormy session in City Council last night.

For the third consecutive Council meeting, a delegation from the Norfolk Ave. area confronted the lawmakers with a plea for improvements, especially on water and street conditions. Some sharp comments were exchanged before the issue ended in what appeared to be at least a temporary stalemate.

The complaints and various summary opinions reached a draw when Council President Harold Clifton directed the matters at hand to the Service Committee. Both the water and street problems will come under this unit's examination for what the solons hope will lead to an adequate solution.

The session reached a controversial stage when Merle Turner, a major property owner of the addition, said residents of the area are not willing to pay assessments for water facilities. He indicated the necessary extension of lines should be provided by the city.

TURNER's son, also a property owner in the addition, said he would be willing to go along with "only something within reason in way of getting the desired improvements."

The delegation backed its complaints with two petitions—one asking for city water and the other street improvements. Both were received and placed on file.

Spokesmen for the group were not in agreement with a cost estimate for water facilities, as prepared by Ervin Leist, public utilities director. Turner and others held firm that the city should provide the water lines rather than have residents pay by assessment as listed in the cost estimate.

Councilman Robert Hedges and Solicitor Kenneth Robbins questioned Leist on the city's practice of requiring assessments for extending water lines. The utilities director said the procedure is authorized by an ordinance and that in the past the city has not furnished extensions at its own expense.

However, Leist pointed out that Council has the right to order the Water Department to make the extension at city cost.

Jackie, Caroline Arrive in Italy

RAVELLO, Italy (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy and Caroline arrived today, via a mountainous coastal highway with sheer drops of 1,000 feet to the sea, for an Italian holiday in this little tourist town perched on a cliff.

They were guarded by police for the 25-mile drive over the curving road from the Salerno airport.

Gas Chamber Snuffs Life Of All-Possessive Mother

San Quentin, Calif. (AP)—Elizabeth (Ma) Duncan, an all-possessive mother who hired the murderer of her son's pregnant wife, died today in the San Quentin gas chamber.

Mrs. Duncan entered the chamber with faltering steps. She said not a word as three guards strapped her into the metal chair.

She stared straight ahead, with eyes level, at the door through which she entered.

The governor's office reported her last words to the warden were: "I am innocent. I want to see my son."

Her eyes blinked as the pellets dropped but she held her head level until a trembling shook her body as the lethal cyanide fumes started their effect.

She breathed deeply. Convulsive shudders shook her and her muscles strained and tensed. Then her head fell back and she was quiet.

A last-minute petition for a stay of execution was denied Mrs. Duncan only five minutes before she entered the gas chamber.

Three hours after the deadly fumes had swirled up to engulf the woman who had had nearly a dozen husbands, her two employees were to have taken their last walk into the death chamber.

They were Augustine Baldonado, 28, and Luis Moya, 23, a pair of tavern drifters. They had executed their murder contract with Mrs. Duncan in November, 1958, by beating, strangling and burying the pregnant 30-year-old Olga Duncan, a pretty native of Canada.

Expansion Drive in Progress

Parking Group Views Need For More Off-Street Space

FILLED TO CAPACITY — The frequency of this crowded scene at the parking lot between W. Main and Franklin Sts. has led the Circleville Parking Lot Corporation to launch a drive for expanded facilities. An adjacent property, under option to the Corporation, is being considered as a means of providing additional space. The new lot would add 34 car spaces to the current 44.

An urgent need for more parking space has prompted the Circleville Parking Lot Corporation to renew efforts to obtain additional off-street facilities.

The Parking Lot Corporation, organized here in 1957, launched the drive which eventually produced the present lot between W. Main and Franklin Sts. Now officers and directors of the organization see an absolute need for expansion.

The present lot, providing space for 44 cars, has been found to be insufficient and too small by the corporation officials. They have taken the view that there is a definite need for more parking space if Circleville business is to progress.

In view of these feelings, the body now stands ready to seek a remedy for the situation. Officers said their current task is to get interested investors who will help finance the project.

THE CORPORATION has an option on the Kochheiser property on Franklin St., next to the present lot. A study has disclosed this area would provide an additional 34 parking spaces to go along with the current 44.

Using the original parking lot as an example, spokesmen said the uppermost expansion problem will be obtaining funds to purchase the Kochheiser land and then proceed with construction. A drive is now in progress to raise the necessary funds.

Charles Schieber and W. Joe Burns, speaking in behalf of the Parking Lot Corporation, labeled the expanded parking project as a necessary ingredient for increasing business activity in Circleville. They said construction, if realized in the future, would be a definite community improvement.

Most proponents of the expansion have cited the mutual benefitting results it would produce.

Simple Rites Due Today for Miss Monroe

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Marilyn Monroe, the waif who won movie stardom but couldn't find happiness in her own life, goes to her final resting place today in a plain green dress.

The shapely actress, who specialized in gay movie roles but found sorrow and disappointment in her own life, was found dead in her bed Sunday, victim of an overdose of barbiturates.

An investigation is under way to determine whether Marilyn's death was accidental or deliberate.

Guy Hockett, managing director of the Westwood Village Mortuary gave these details of the final rites:

The movie queen, bejeweled and befringed in her many public appearances, will wear a demure, light green dress and no jewelry.

The non-denominational services, expected to last about 35 minutes, will be conducted by the Rev. A. J. Soldan, Lutheran pastor of the Village Church in Westwood.

The body will lie in an open, solid bronze casket lined with champagne-colored velvet. After the services, the casket will be sealed and carried a few yards away to a crypt, where Marilyn will be entombed.

Britain Again Backpedals On Soblen Orders to Israel

LONDON (AP)—The British government today extended until Friday midnight the deadline for El Al Airlines to take fugitive spy Robert A. Soblen to the United States.

This put off a showdown in the three-nation wrangle over Soblen which had been due to come to a head at midnight tonight, the original deadline. El Al, the Israeli airline, has a flight going to New York on Friday afternoon.

There was no indication, however, that the airline will comply with the British Home Office order. It is under instructions from the Israeli government to take Soblen only to Israel.

A diplomatic source said it may be weeks before the United States gets its hands on the 61-year-old psychiatrist, who is under a life sentence.

Soblen's lawyers issued a statement saying that Soblen, said to be suffering from leukemia, will die in a prison hospital unless he receives a pardon or amnesty from President Kennedy.

If the airline returned him to Israel, Soblen could open a legal maneuver to remain in Israel or seek refuge elsewhere. He has been offered asylum by Communist Czechoslovakia.

Britain reportedly has given Washington assurances it will move carefully about letting Soblen go away but it could involve a long legal fight in British courts. A diplomatic source said Home

Once Around Roundtown

"PEOPLE have more trouble than anyone in the world. Also, love effects people in many different ways. But however it effects folks, we will have to say, 'Ain't love Grand!'" This was an opinion of Pickaway County Sheriff Walton Spangler after investigating a complaint yesterday.

A woman had called the sheriff reporting that someone was breaking her windows. When he arrived at the scene of the incident, Sheriff Spangler discovered a man walking down the road bleeding profusely from a cut on the lip.

Upon further investigation, he was informed that the man and woman had had a lover's quarrel. The man had started throwing rocks through the windows of his "true love's house." His "true love" attacked him with a butcher knife, cutting his lip, hands, legs and body.

Neither party, however, would file charges, Spangler said. When the sheriff left, the couple had apparently made up. Love had conquered all.

Norfolk Group Still Seeking Improvements

Delegation Negative On Assessments for City Water Facilities

A move to obtain improved living conditions in Circleville's Turner Addition provided a brief but stormy session in City Council last night.

For the third consecutive Council meeting, a delegation from the Norfolk Ave. area confronted the lawmakers with a plea for improvements, especially on water and street conditions. Some sharp comments were exchanged before the issue ended in what appeared to be at least a temporary stalemate.

The complaints and various summary opinions reached a draw when Council President Harold Clifton directed the matters at hand to the Service Committee. Both the water and street problems will come under this unit's examination for what the solons hope will lead to an adequate solution.

The session reached a controversial stage when Merle Turner, a major property owner of the area, said residents of the area are not willing to pay assessments for water facilities. He indicated the necessary extension of lines should be provided by the city.

TURNER's son, also a property owner in the addition, said he would be willing to go along with "only something within reason in way of getting the desired improvements."

The delegation backed its complaint with two petitions — one asking for city water and the other street improvements. Both were received and placed on file.

Spokesmen for the group were not in agreement with a cost estimate for water facilities, as prepared by Erwin Leist, public utilities director. Turner and others held firm that the city should provide the water lines rather than have residents pay by assessment as listed in the cost estimate.

Councilman Robert Hodges and Solicitor Kenneth Robbins questioned Leist on the city's practice of requiring assessments for extending water lines. The utilities director said the procedure is authorized by an ordinance and that in the past the city has not furnished extensions at its own expense.

However, Leist pointed out that Council has the right to order the Water Department to make the extension at city cost.

The Parking Lot Corporation, organized here in 1957, launched the drive which eventually produced the present lot between W. Main and Franklin Sts. Now officers and directors of the organization see an absolute need for expansion.

The present lot, providing space for 44 cars, has been found to be insufficient and too small by the corporation officials. They have taken the view that there is a definite need for more parking space if Circleville business is to progress.

In view of these feelings, the body now stands ready to seek a remedy for the situation. Officers said their current task is to get interested investors who will help finance the project.

THE CORPORATION has an option on the Kochheiser property on Franklin St., next to the present lot. A study has disclosed this area would provide an additional 34 parking spaces to go along with the current 44.

Using the original parking lot as an example, spokesmen said the uppermost expansion problem will be obtaining funds to purchase the Kochheiser land and then proceed with construction. A drive is now in progress to raise the necessary funds.

Charles Schieber and W. Joe Burns, speaking in behalf of the Parking Lot Corporation, labeled the expanded parking project as a necessary ingredient for increasing business activity in Circleville. They said construction, if realized in the future, would be a definite community improvement.

Most proponents of the expansion have cited the mutual benefitting results it would produce.

Plane Snips Power Line

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (AP)—Electricity within a 50-mile radius was cut off Tuesday when a small plane clipped an REA power line.

Post, where he's financial advertising manager.

His daughter's wooden "ad" attracted the attention of Dr. Roger Gary, chairman of the Roslyn Planning Commission, who noticed that cars were slowing down near the sign.

Gary thought the sign was a good idea and mentioned it at the village board meeting.

The board voted "to carry the between both merchants and consumers. The off-street parking group has long taken the stand that parking should be made as convenient as possible for shoppers.

The parking problem in Circleville has aroused merchants in Circleville for several years on the basis that it may be choking trade out of the community. Initial efforts to find a solution were started in 1954, followed by formation of the Parking Lot Corporation in 1957.

Last March the parking situation was touched on again during an open meeting convened to discuss the business outlook in Circleville. (Continued on Page 14)

Britain Again Backpedals On Soblen Orders to Israel

LONDON (AP)—The British government today extended until Friday midnight the deadline for El Al Airlines to take fugitive spy Robert A. Soblen to the United States.

This put off a showdown in the three-nation wrangle over Soblen which had been due to come to a head at midnight tonight, the original deadline. El Al, the Israeli airline, has a flight going to New York on Friday afternoon.

There was no indication, however, that the airline will comply with the British Home Office order. It is under instructions from the Israeli government to take Soblen only to Israel.

A diplomatic source said it may be weeks before the United States gets its hands on the 61-year-old psychiatrist, who is under a life sentence.

Soblen's lawyers issued a statement saying that Soblen, said to be suffering from leukemia, will die in a prison hospital unless he receives a pardon or amnesty from President Kennedy.

If the airline returned him to Israel, Soblen could open a legal maneuver to remain in Israel or seek refuge elsewhere. He has been offered asylum by Communist Czechoslovakia.

Britain reportedly has given Washington assurances it will move carefully about letting Soblen go away but it could involve a long legal fight in British courts.

A diplomatic source said Home

Secretary Henry Brooke was expected to issue an order for Soblen's deportation.

This would allow British security men to put him on any plane going to New York. But the order could be challenged in the British courts, the source said.

Once Around Roundtown

"PEOPLE have more trouble than anyone in the world. Also, love affects people in many different ways. But however it affects folks, we will have to say, 'Ain't love grand!'" This was an opinion of Pickaway County Sheriff Walton Spangler after investigating a complaint yesterday.

A woman had called the sheriff reporting that someone was breaking her windows. When he arrived at the scene of the incident, Sheriff Spangler discovered a man walking down the road bleeding profusely from a cut on the lip.

Upon further investigation, he was informed that the man and woman had had a lover's quarrel. The man had started throwing rocks through the windows of his "true love's house". His "true love" attacked him with a butcher knife, cutting his lip, hands, legs and body.

Neither party, however, would file charges, Spangler said. When the sheriff left, the couple had apparently made up. Love had conquered all.

Daughter-in-Law Slaying Plotted By Ma Duncan

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Elizabeth (Ma) Duncan, an all-possessive mother who hired the murderer of her son's pregnant wife, died today in the San Quentin gas chamber.

Mrs. Duncan entered the chamber with faltering steps.

She said not a word as three guards strapped her into the metal chair.

She stared straight ahead, with eyes level, at the door through which she entered.

The governor's office reported her last words to the warden were: "I am innocent. I want to see my son."

Her eyes blinked as the pellets dropped but she held her head level until a trembling shook her body as the lethal cyanide fumes started their effect.

She breathed deeply. Convulsive shudders shook her and her muscles strained and tensed. Then her head fell back and she was quiet.

A last-minute petition for a stay of execution was denied Mrs. Duncan only five minutes before she entered the gas chamber.

Three hours after the deadly fumes had swirled up to engulf the woman who had had nearly a dozen husbands, her two employees were to have taken their last walk into the death chamber.

They were Augustine Baldonado, 28, and Luis Moya, 23, a pair of tavern drifters. They had executed their murder contract with Mrs. Duncan in November, 1958, by beating, strangling and burying the pregnant 30-year-old Olga Duncan, a pretty native of Canada.

Simple Rites Due Today for Miss Monroe

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Marilyn Monroe, the waif who won movie stardom but couldn't find happiness in her own life, goes to her final resting place today in a plain green dress.

The shapely actress, who specialized in gay movie roles but found sorrow and disappointment in her own life, was found dead in her bed Sunday, victim of an overdose of barbiturates.

An investigation is under way to determine whether Marilyn's death was accidental or deliberate.

Guy Hockett, managing director of the Westwood Village Mortuary gave these details of the final rites:

The movie queen, bejeweled and befurred in her many public appearances, will wear a demure, light green dress and no jewelry. The non-denominational services, expected to last about 35 minutes, will be conducted by the Rev. A. J. Soldan, Lutheran pastor of the Village Church in Westwood.

The body will lie in an open, solid bronze casket lined with champagne-colored velvet. After the services, the casket will be sealed and carried a few yards away to a crypt, where Marilyn will be entombed.

Jury To Ponder Slaying Of Ohio Village Marshal

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio (AP)—Logan County grand jurors assembled Thursday for a two-day session on the first-degree murder charges brought by the sheriff's office against Earl Ralph Jacobs, 24, of Adrian, Mich.

Jacobs, paroled last May from the federal reformatory at Chillicothe, is accused of fatally shooting West Liberty's village Marshal, Sherman Ricketts, 63, June 24.

Successful Mission

For 40 years the National Livestock and Meat Board, a cooperative education and promotional agency which includes all segments of the industry, has performed its mission with success.

It is financed by a small deduction on live animals sold through participating marketing agencies. That amount is matched by participating packers. The sums are 2 cents a head on cattle, 2-3 cents on calves and hogs, 2-5 cents on sheep and lambs.

By written request a shipper can avoid the deduction. This seldom happens since benefits of product promotion are easily recognized.

Some cooperative marketing agencies do not participate and those members are exempt from paying the pennies or fractions of pennies on livestock sold. Board members are appointed by cooperating organizations in the meat industry and serve without pay. Little of the board's revenue is spent on administration.

Now the Department of Agriculture proposes an amendment to the Packers and Stockyards Act under which deduction of promotional funds is authorized. It would require written authorization for deductions from all shippers and prohibit deductions for one promotional agency unless marketing agencies, dealers and packers were willing to deduct for other promotional agencies.

Also required would be voluminous quarterly reports on organizations for which deductions are made, and amounts withheld; and verification of authorization to make deductions.

This would reduce greatly the amount available for promotional work because of stepped up administrative costs. It would reduce effectiveness of a self-help program which has done a creditable job for 40 years with minimum friction.

Can You Remember When —

hoard of remembrances. The more you have to remember, the more you have lived; none is poor who is rich in memories.

You have made quite a journey through time if you can look back and remember when—

You had to crank a telephone to get the operator, and when she responded, you said, "Hello, central"—and then told her who you wanted.

Bob Hope was an obscure young song-and-dance man living out of a vaudeville trunk.

Movies were silent, and background music was provided by a neighborhood piano teacher—usually dumpy and middle-aged, so the patrons wouldn't bother her. During exciting scenes she always played the "Overture from William Tell."

When you asked a stranger what time it was, he reached in his vest pocket for his watch instead of looking at his wrist.

Elderly men always kept their change in a snap-shut coin purse. Many a farmer made up his mind what and when to plant according to what the almanac said—and not by what the government ordered.

You could order a fine set of false teeth by mail. They might not fit very well, but then a fellow didn't have to wear them except in church, while attending a funeral, or other formal functions.

Farm girls wore dresses made from flour or grain sacks, accented by a dime store ribbon in their hair.

People walked so much that paring corns was the most popular form of home surgery.

Boys wore long black stockings that usually had a hole in the right knee caused by playing marble.

The biggest showoff in the block was the kid who had saved up enough pennies to buy a Boy Scout knife. He wore it dangling from a string around his neck, so every body would be sure to see it.

Every farmer was reported to keep a shotgun primed with bacon rind to fire at youngsters who tried to loot his watermelon patch at ripening time. If you got hit, the pieces of bacon rind stung like a thousand bumblebees.

Nobody was on a diet, and if you didn't order a second helping of every dish set before you, the hostess took it as a personal criticism of her cooking—and might cry after you left.

The fellow who had enough time to go down to the depot and watch the morning train arrive, and the evening train leave, was widely regarded as a pretty shiftless character.

The local druggist diagnosed more illnesses than the local doctor—and didn't charge you for consultation.

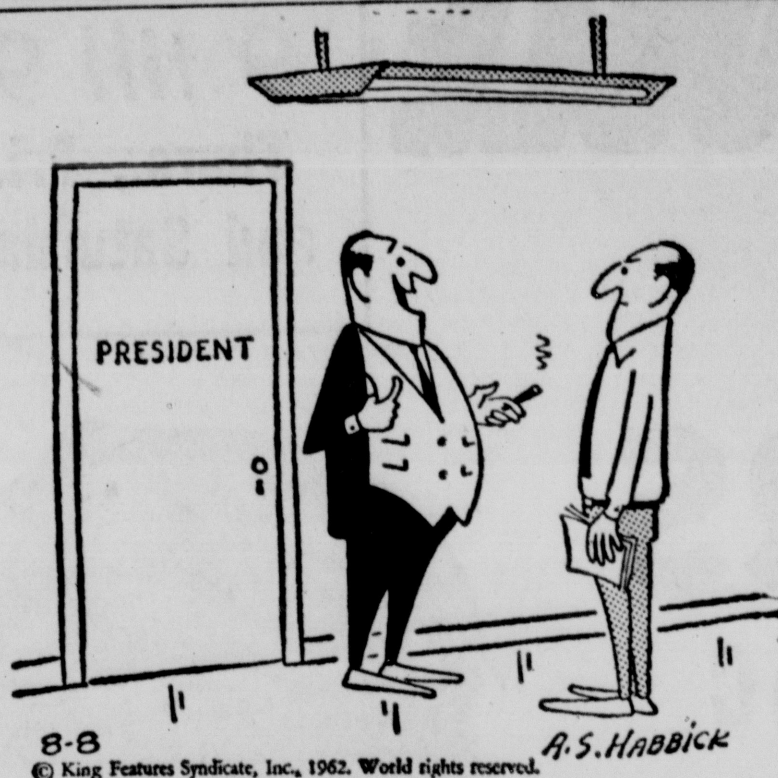

Only city people got up by the alarm clock. In town and country the rooster served the same purpose.

When a wise youth went courting, it wasn't merely romance that led him to hold a girl's hand. The number of calluses in her palm told him how much she helped her mother around the house—and whether she'd make him a good hard-working wife.

MILLIONAIRE Inventor Philip K. Saunders has written the story of his unusual life in "Dr. Panto Fogo," a nickname he acquired one day when his trousers caught a fire while he was taking a nap aboard a slow train in Brazil. A few of Mr. Saunders' passing comments bear repetition: (1) Laziness is the mother of nine inventions out of ten. (2) French food is not really good food. It is mediocre food cunningly cooked and disguised with sauces. (3) Africans never talk about sex because there are no sex taboos of any kind and therefore nothing about sex calls for any comment except the expression of approval.

"You've got to straighten out my husband," said a wife to a Park Avenue psychiatrist. "He thinks he's a jet plane." "Bring him here Thursday at 2," suggested the psychiatrist. "That time is impossible," said the wife. "He's got to appear in court that afternoon—for flying over Flatbush."

In Dallas, Lon Tinkle has discovered a merchant who is particularly optimistic about the current business picture. He is an old scissors grinder, and he told Tinkle happily, "I'm having my biggest season. I never saw things so dull."

In Worcester a bookseller received a letter from an aggrieved customer which pointed out, "Four weeks ago I sent you a check for a dictionary with no index. All I have received to date is no index."

Dear Doctor: The elastic bandages I'm supposed to wear for varicose veins keep slipping down. Are they really necessary?

Mr. F. B. (Manitoba)
Dear Mr. B.: Your doctor thinks so!

When blood collects in sagging varicose veins, circulation slows. With foot up on pillows to empty all veins, roll on an elastic bandage.

Start at the foot. Prevent slipping. Clip the end just below the knee where the leg is narrower than the calf.

P. S. Washing restores oomph to overstretched elastic bandages! Dear Doctor: During trembling spells both legs feel like they're jumping. Once, at the height of argument, my right arm began to jump.

I'm 18. Should I consult a doctor?

Dear Miss M.: Yes. They could be nervous spasms, epilepsy or some serious nerve trouble which prompt treatment can head off.

A complete examination—and possibly X-rays and brain wave tests—can tell. Even if it's all a red herring, you'll have calmed those oceans of worry!

Dear Doctor: Does a white eyelash mean eye trouble?

Mrs. M.D. (B. C.)
Dear Mrs. D.: No more than a white whisker! As head, eyebrows, lashes and whiskers gray and whiten, it's time for an eye check-up. Cataracts, glaucoma and lens changes often plague senior citizens.

Your eyes must work pretty well to spot that white lash!

Dear Doctor: Every summer itchy, oozing blisters break out on my skin, especially after eating oranges, tomatoes and other tart

Same Old Political Game

By George Sokolsky

It takes too much time, too much effort and too much money to become President of the United States.

It is an undertaking to be made only by millionaires or the favorites of labor unions which have large treasuries. The corporations who could, in Mark Hanna's day, influence a nomination are today paralyzed by law; generous private givers are becoming stingy because of the income tax.

A Presidential candidate has to run many times: first, in the primaries; second, at the convention; third, at an election; fourth, indirectly during the intermediate congressional and gubernatorial election when his future may be determined; fifth, during the reelection primary; sixth, during the reelection convention; seventh, during the reelection campaign. If he makes two terms, a veritable fortune has been spent.

I should like to tote up the costs of this very complicated operation but such figures are not accurately or completely available. May be, when President Kennedy has had his two terms and has retired, he will write a book on the subject.

In 1957, Professor William G. Carleton of the University of Florida, commenting on this subject in the "Political Science Quarterly," wrote:

"The days of the favorite son, the dark horse, the stalking horse, the smoke-filled conference room, the Senatorial and Congressional cabal, and the decisive trading of votes by local bigwigs are numbered, if indeed they are not already finished. 'Insiders' and members of the political 'club' are being cut down to size and forced to accept the leadership of those who have made successful national pre-convention campaigns and of those who have become national 'names' and mass celebrities."

That was not so at either convention in 1960. Among the Democrats, the contest was between John F. Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson. Both had campaigned in the primaries, but the convention was as it had been since conventions started: there were deals and bargains and arrangements. Even television changed nothing because there were no television sets in the private hotel rooms and the lobbies. The Kennedy steam-roller, managed by Robert Kennedy and Abraham Ribicoff, was a well-oiled, brilliantly managed operation.

The Republican Convention was even simpler. President Eisenhower chose Richard Nixon and the delegates were there to applaud. Nelson Rockefeller, who wanted the job, was left out in the cold.

Kennedy's campaign recognized a fundamental principle: the Solid South could be depended upon for perhaps one more Democratic vote; the task was to subtract votes from the Republican North.

This was accomplished by recognizing that the North had become urbanized and that women voted. Kennedy made his pitch that way. Nixon would have been elected had he not listened to advisers who told him to be gentle and polite and had he not tried to save Eisenhower's face.

I note that Professor Carleton said:

"Mass pressures were responsible for the nomination of Wendell Willkie. The average Republican delegate did not want Willkie. The average Republican politician, guided by the old rules of the game, had every reason to be suspicious of him. The old rules demanded a professional, a proved vote-getter."

Wendell Willkie was chosen by groups attached to the National Association of Manufacturers. I was part of that apparatus for a short time and saw it in its infancy. The campaign for Willkie was set up long before the convention. Willkie had been a Democrat; a member of Tammany Hall and of the New York Democratic County Committee. Earlier, he had been a Socialist. However, he delivered a speech at the Town Hall and of the New York Democratic County Committee. Earlier, he had been a Socialist. However, he delivered a speech at the Town Hall in New York in favor of private enterprise which attracted a great deal of attention. He was then President of Commonwealth and Southern. E. T. Weir of National Steel and Thomas Lamont of J. P. Morgan and Company decided that whatever might be Willkie's politics, he was the kind of log-cabin, barefoot boy gone rich sort of fellow who could be elected.

A public relations job was organized to mobilize industry. Pressures were put on men and businesses, on delegates and politicians, in effect, that it would have to be Willkie or your mortgage would be called. The masses, as the professor put it, when they had a chance to vote, preferred Franklin D. Roosevelt for a third term.

Even so, the Willkie campaign, if it were ever studied in depth, was a very expensive enterprise. It was the first time that Madison Avenue played a major role in a political campaign—an enterprise which Roosevelt characterized as "Martin, Barton and Fish."

However, Madison Avenue has remained in the campaigns and has raised the costs as though votes were detergents. Perhaps the most costly operation are the polls. All sorts of pollsters have come into existence since Dr. Gallup started the business and candidates buy their conclusions as folks used to buy patent medicines.

The old game is being played as it always has been played. Deals are made by politicians to give the people a chance to prove beyond doubt that the voice of the people is the voice of God.

Kennedy at Mid-Term

President Still Seeking Closer Tie to Businessmen

Editor's Note: Following is the third in a series of articles assessing President Kennedy's program after two years in office.

By RELMAN MORIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has tried to convince businessmen that he is not "anti-business."

He meets them in groups. He exchanges letters with David Rockefeller, president of Chase Manhattan Bank, New York, outlining his economic policy and philosophy. Or he invites the individual businessman to the White House, seats him on the long sofa in his office, and says, "I'd like to hear what you think I should do."

But the impact on the business community as a whole has not been notably deep. In many quarters, the belief persists that he is in some cases, the motivation is visceral, an instinctive feeling that Democratic presidents are unsympathetic to business. The more specific reasons that emerge in conversations with businessmen go like this—

1. "I don't have any confidence in him. He says one thing but does another."
2. "He never had to meet a payroll, so he doesn't know the value of the dollar."
3. "Kennedy may be all right, but I'm scared stiff by some of the wild-eyed theorists around him."
4. "I don't hold any brief for the way Roger Blough (chairman of the board of U.S. Steel) handled the price increase. But Kennedy's reaction was bound to frighten business."

5. "He played mighty rough with management in the steel case, but I don't believe he will play rough with labor."
6. "He says a budget deficit is just a 'myth.' (a reference to the President's speech at Yale, last June 11.)

And these are the answers of government officers—

1. Business had confidence in presidents Herbert Hoover and Dwight D. Eisenhower, but four recessions developed during their administrations. Business confidence is based, in fact, on the ability of the economy to invest, produce and consume.
2. Kennedy expresses concern over the outflow of gold and deficits in the balance of payments. He says the dollar will not be devaluated. And he recently gave "anti-business."

business a tax break—long in the works — which was estimated at $1.5 billion, on depreciation of plant equipment. A Cabinet officer points out, "that break could have been given at any time in the past 10 years."

3. Policy advisors advise, but policy is made in the deliberations of many men who would not be described as "wild-eyed."

4. In the steel case, Kennedy considered the competitive position of American steel and the impact of steel prices on the prices of other commodities. He calculated that the increase would take $3 billion from the economy. He also felt a "question of good faith" was involved, since the United Steel Workers had accepted a contract that the administration considered non-inflationary.

5. A high-placed officer says, "I know of a lot of pressure on the unions." He points out that, in the steel case, the government began "exerting the public interest" by discussing the contract with the unions.

6. At Yale, Kennedy spoke of several "myths." He said one was that "federal deficits create inflation and budget surpluses prevent it." He noted that the post-World War II surpluses "did not prevent inflation and persistent deficits for the last several years have not upset our basic price stability."

The President also called for a "serious dialogue" in all sectors of the American society on these questions. It has not developed and he is disappointed today.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Anthony J. Celebrezze sounds even more cautious than Abraham Ribicoff, the man he succeeded as secretary of health, education and welfare.

Ribicoff, a politician and now running for the Senate in Connecticut, never built any fires here that would make people mad at him.

He was a very mild member of President Kennedy's Cabinet.

And he was quite a man for compromise. For example, the way he was willing to compromise with the conservatives in Congress on Kennedy's plan of medical care for the aged.

So far the most distinguishing mark of Celebrezze, five-time mayor of Cleveland, has been a great unwillingness since getting his new assignment to stick his neck out even a little bit on anything.

After the President had picked him, but before the Senate approved his nomination, Celebrezze declined to say where he stood on the big national issues.

This was understandable since he still didn't have the job and the Senate could be unpredictable.

But he's here now, with the job, and Tuesday at his first Washington news conference he had his first chance to say where he stood on the two biggest issues involving his department.

These were federal aid to public elementary schools (but not parochial schools) and medical care for the aged.

When the conference was over Celebrezze still hadn't said anything to make anybody mad at him or really to indicate exactly where he stood on those two touchy problems.

One of Kennedy's earliest acts as president was to propose federal aid to education, leaving out parochial schools. This got Catholic leaders angry.

It would seem that between then and now Celebrezze, particularly since he was mayor of Cleveland and had school problems, would have had time to study the aid-to-education plan backward and forward.

But he told his news conference he hasn't completed a study of the problem.

He praised the Kennedy medical care plan on the grounds that its cost would be financed through Social Security taxes on workers covered by Social Security rather than at the expense of the general taxpayer.

This was a little hard to follow since the Social Security system now covers nine out of 10 working Americans, most of whom pay income taxes and Social Security taxes.

Celebrezze said he thinks there will always be a need for the Kerr-Mills program of medical aid through the public assistance program. But he said its full effectiveness is being delayed by lack of action by the legislatures to bring their states into it.

The Kennedy administration explanation for proposing its program was that the Kerr-Mills arrangement was much too inadequate to meet the needs of people over 65.

But the Kennedy program got smothered in Congress, along with Ribicoff's proposed compromise.

Nevertheless, Celebrezze said, "Something must be done" and "I am sure the next session of Congress will come out with some program."

At this point it seems fair to conclude:

Celebrezze would like to avoid the savage jungle of Washington politics, if he can, and try to operate as a manager of the department, which Ribicoff complained was too big and should be split up.

Chamber Views Are Invited On Proposal To Annex Land

An invitation to study and become familiar with a proposal for annexation of land south of the city was extended yesterday to the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce.

Discussing the annexation measure now before the Pickaway County Board of Commissioners was Mayor Richard Penn, a guest at the regular monthly meeting of the Chamber. He outlined various phases of the proposal.

The mayor also presented brief comments on the annexation in regard to the residential and commercial building program now under consideration by the Miller Development Co. of Lancaster.

Penn urged Chamber officials to give serious study to the annexation move prior to a public hearing on the matter, scheduled Nov. 27 in the office of the County Commissioners. The Commission set the hearing date this week.

to join him and Circleville Service Director Ronald Sharrett for participation in the session at Columbus.

In other business, E.G. Grigg of the Chamber's Congressional Action Committee requested immediate opposition to the WPA-type public works bill now before Congress. Along with his request, he urged businessmen to take an interest and participate in politics, mainly through the media of writing to Congressmen and the Presidential Administration.

Nat Lefko, chairman of the Chamber's Retail Merchants Division, reported on a successful "Sidewalk Sales" here last month. He commended the promotional work of George Fuhrman and Robert Swackhammer of the committee, Chamber secretary Mrs. E. R. Bennett and The Circleville Herald.

At this point it seems fair to conclude:

Celebrezze would like to avoid the savage jungle of Washington politics, if he can, and try to operate as a manager of the department, which Ribicoff complained was too big and should be split up.

REVIEWING city master plan progress, Mayor Penn informed the Chamber that the Ohio Department of Highways has slated a seminar Aug. 16 and 17 on transportation in regard to area planning. He invited Chamber officials

Family Honors Member with Celebration

A group of relatives met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Newlon, Route 3, to celebrate Mrs. Newlon's birthday.

Ice cream and cake were served to Miss Edna Ingman, Miss Nellie Ingman and Glenn Ingman, Route 1, Williamsport; Mrs. Willard Rolfe and children, Debbie, Bobby and Eddie, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Ingman and children Rex and Rita and Garry Richardson, Route 3, Mt. Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Stuart Calhoun, Johnson City, Tenn.; Mrs. Benjamin Buckles, Logan; Mrs. Donald Butcher, St. Paul, Minn.; Mrs. Robert Butcher, North Carolina; Miss Gail Freidrich, St. Paul, Minn.; Mrs. Ernest E. Enoch and Miss Sue Barnes, Circleville; and Mrs. Terry Roof, Ashville.

Birth Defects — Drugs

Q. From a recent TV program on birth defects I learned that certain drugs have a bad effect on an unborn child. Can you list these for me?

A. A simple listing of agents which could affect the unborn child would have very little meaning because timing is all important. The limb buds of the embryo begin to develop in the fourth week of pregnancy. The palate begins to close in the sixth week. The dividing wall within the heart emerges during the eighth week. Thus, if the mother receives an "insult" (this could be a drug, a virus infection, or physical injury) during the critical development of some vital structure, a defect might be produced in that part. The same "insult" at any other time would be very unlikely to cause similar results.

Stroke Warnings

Q. Do people ever experience warning signs before a stroke?

A. Some do. Persistent headache is the most common sign. Other warnings include numbness, weakness, slurred speech, and disorientation.

It's wise to have a family physician. Then, if an emergency arises, you will not be a stranger to him. And remember, our friendly and competent staff will be glad to serve your prescription needs.

Dear Abby: You Can Only Try, Mom!

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our son was overseas for 18 months. When he arrived in San Francisco for separation, we eagerly awaited a phone call which never came. Two days later he called from Los Angeles to tell us he had gone directly to see his "girl." We didn't even know he had a girl. At his invitation we flew to Los Angeles to meet the girl and her family, as our son said they planned to get married as soon as he found a job.

She is a very ordinary 18-year-old girl who has a lot to learn. Her parents are common people but they tried to be nice to us. The romance bloomed through the mails when his buddy gave him his sister's address, picture, etc. Our son's college plans are now abandoned. We don't want to seem possessive, but how can we discourage this marriage? Our son is only 21.

SAD PARENTS

DEAR PARENTS: Ask the boy to defer marriage for six months to think about (a) foregoing college; (b) taking a wife before finding a satisfactory job and (c) promising to love, honor and obey a pen pal! If this doesn't slow him down, you've got a daughter-in-law for better or for worse.

DEAR ABBY: What does a girl do after she has just received an engagement ring? Does she stick it under everybody's nose? Or does she wait until somebody notices it and asks to see it more closely?

PUZZLED
DEAR PUZZLED: She usually waits for someone to "notice" it. And it shouldn't be difficult to "notice" because most newly-engaged girls suddenly become "left-handed."

DEAR ABBY: I have a hare-brained daughter who has been teaching school for nine years. She has been keeping company with a man who owns his own business. They are not engaged and so far I haven't seen any signs of it. He has been taking up her time for five years. They are not kids. She's 31 and he is 39. If she doesn't have sense enough to ask this guy when he is going to marry her, don't you think I should step in?

HER FATHER

DEAR FATHER: A 31-year-old "girl" doesn't need her father to run interference for her. Sit tight, Daddy. Maybe daughter likes it this way.

DEAR ABBY: What's so wonderful about a 9-week-old baby turning over by itself, and a 2½-year-old child doing the Twist? MY baby did the Twist and turned over by himself BEFORE he was born!

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Highway Department opened bids Tuesday on more than $8 million worth of construction projects, bringing the total for the year to early $92 million.

Accused Rapist Held For Jury Action

CINCINNATI (AP) — Thomas Goodwin, 31, charged with rape last July 23 of a University of Cincinnati co-ed, was bound over to the grand jury today under $5,000 bond.

Police Court Judge Daniel Handley took the action after Goodwin waived a preliminary examination.

Police said Goodwin admitted the rape Monday night after several days of questioning.

An ounce of whiskey contains about 75 calories—about the same as a large slice of bread, four and a half teaspoons of sugar or one and a half pats of butter.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mix one special grand jury investigation of alleged scandals in City Hall with a fall election for governor and a highly explosive compound of political fireworks results.

That's the mixture brewed when Common Pleas Judge Eugene Alessandroni, a Republican, ordered a grand jury investigation of GOP charges of corruption in the Democratic administration of former Mayor Richardson Dilworth.

Dilworth resigned as mayor last March to become the Democratic candidate for governor. His opponent is Republican Congressman William W. Scranton of Scranton, Pa.

Dilworth says Alessandroni's ruling has political undertones since the grand jury probe—scheduled to begin Sept. 4—will plow headlong into the heart of the gubernatorial campaign. Dilworth wanted the inquiry to begin sooner.

Scranton repeatedly has attacked Dilworth's administration, and made the alleged scandals a part of his campaign, promising to clean up the city if elected governor.

Dilworth replies that any large city is likely to have some corruption, and that an investigation made during his final days as mayor went far toward curbing it.

The special investigation will be prosecuted by W. Wilson White, a Republican, who was U.S. attorney for Eastern Pennsylvania from 1953 to 1957. His first assistant in the current probe is F. Hastings Griffin Jr., also a Republican.

Democrats said Griffin smeared

a campaign picture of Dilworth with cake and lipstick during a private dinner in 1952, prompting the former mayor's successor, James H. Tate to label Griffin "a playboy."

Griffin admitted "dressing up" Dilworth's picture, but said, "it was a silly incident and should be treated as such."

Both White and Griffin have promised an impartial, objective investigation. "It will be a non-political, no-holds barred" investigation, White said.

But a Democratic councilman took a different view.

"This is going to be an impartial probe—by partisans," he said.

The request for a grand jury probe was made by the Republican Alliance, an independent GOP group in the city. It charged a "widespread network of extortion" linked to the Democratic-controlled City Council and the party's City Committee.

Judge Alessandroni, in his order, said the alliance petition charged three instances of improper activity within the administration—"evidence of an illicit alliance between the Democratic City Committee and the City Council."

He described them this way: "1. An ordinance was pending in council providing for regulation of coin-operated laundries; the operator of the laundries opposed more stringent provisions of the ordinance was pending in council providing for regulation of coin-operated laundries; the operator of the laundries opposed more stringent provisions of the ordinance. As the result of a contribution of $4,000 to the Democratic Finance Committee made with hope, not just out of good will, the provisions of the ordinance were softened and as so amended, the ordinance was later enacted.

"2. A real estate operator stated that he made a $1,000 political contribution to a political leader in exchange for a guarantee that a zoning ordinance would be enacted. He further stated that a member of council demanded a consideration of $500 for introducing the ordinance.

"3. The third instance in the petition involves the purported sale of a zoning ordinance for $2,500 which was not consumed by enactment because the interested party did not come forth with the balance of the money. The go-between in this transaction, one (John) Fitzpatrick (former council sergeant-at-arms) stated that he was paid $125 a week to remain silent about the matter after disclosure of this transaction was made in the public press."

Fitzpatrick was acquitted by a jury of a conspiracy charge in the case.

HE GREW HAIR

Mr. T. A. Melton, Jr., of Hollidaysburg, Pa. (above) gave about 20 minutes of his time for an interview with a representative — saved and regrew his hair in only a few months with the exclusive home method. He did not have male pattern baldness.

Will be in Chillicothe, Ohio Tomorrow, Thursday Only

The Ebb Hair Specialists' Staff Director, J. C. Kell on his regularly scheduled visit will be at the Warner Hotel, Chillicothe, Ohio, Thursday, August 9. Every hair-worried person should take advantage of this great opportunity.

The Ebb method is known to many people all over the United States. You can have a conference with the Ebb representative regarding your hair and scalp problems at no cost to you whatsoever, learn how the scalp treatments work, and the results you can expect in a short period of time.

Results guaranteed by the Ebb organization. We don't ask you to take our word. You will be given a written guarantee from the beginning to end on a pro-rated basis.

Male pattern baldness is the cause of a great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which neither the Ebb method nor any other method is effective, and the Ebb method will not help those who are slick bald after years of gradual hair loss.

If your scalp is still creating hair and you have dandruff, or excessive hair fall, excessive oiliness, dryness, or itchy scalp, you should take 20 minutes of your time to see what you can do.

Many have reported satisfactory results from the methods used by Ebb. Why burden yourself with unhealthy hair and scalp? Anyway it costs you nothing to come in and learn how many people have been helped by the years of Ebb experience plus the wonderful opportunity for help it offers. Just go to the Warner Hotel in Chillicothe on Thursday, August 9 only, between 1 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. Ask the Hotel Desk Clerk for J. C. Kell, he will do the rest.

Interviews are given in private. You will not be embarrassed in any way.

Accused Rapist Held For Jury Action

CINCINNATI (AP) — Thomas Goodwin, 31, charged with rape last July 23 of a University of Cincinnati co-ed, was bound over to the grand jury today under $5,000 bond.

Police Court Judge Daniel Handley took the action after Goodwin waived a preliminary examination.

Police said Goodwin admitted the rape Monday night after several days of questioning.

An ounce of whiskey contains about 75 calories—about the same as a large slice of bread, four and a half teaspoons of sugar or one and a half pats of butter.

Pennsy Politics Enlivened by Probe of Scandal

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mix one special grand jury investigation of alleged scandals in City Hall with a fall election for governor and a highly explosive compound of political fireworks results.

That's the mixture brewed when Common Pleas Judge Eugene Alessandroni, a Republican, ordered a grand jury investigation of GOP charges of corruption in the Democratic administration of former Mayor Richardson Dilworth.

Dilworth resigned as mayor last March to become the Democratic candidate for governor. His opponent is Republican Congressman William W. Scranton of Scranton, Pa.

Dilworth says Alessandroni's ruling has political undertones since the grand jury probe—scheduled to begin Sept. 4—will plow headlong into the heart of the gubernatorial campaign. Dilworth wanted the inquiry to begin sooner.

Scranton repeatedly has attacked Dilworth's administration, and made the alleged scandals a part of his campaign, promising to clean up the city if elected governor.

Dilworth replies that any large city is likely to have some corruption, and that an investigation made during his final days as mayor went far toward curbing it.

The special investigation will be prosecuted by W. Wilson White, a Republican, who was U.S. attorney for Eastern Pennsylvania from 1953 to 1957. His first assistant in the current probe is F. Hastings Griffin Jr., also a Republican.

Democrats said Griffin smeared

a campaign picture of Dilworth with cake and lipstick during a private dinner in 1952, prompting the former mayor's successor, James H. J. Tate to label Griffin "a playboy."

Griffin admitted "dressing up" Dilworth's picture, but said, "it was a silly incident and should be treated as such."

Both White and Griffin have promised an impartial, objective investigation. "It will be a non-political, no-holds barred" investigation, White said.

But a Democratic councilman took a different view.

"This is going to be an impartial probe—by partisans," he said.

The request for a grand jury probe was made by the Republican Alliance, an independent GOP group in the city. It charged a "widespread network of extortion" linked to the Democratic-controlled City Council and the party's City Committee.

Judge Alessandroni, in his order, said the alliance petition charged three instances of improper activity within the administration—"evidence of the sale of legislation and the existence of an illicit alliance between the Democratic City Committee and the City Council."

He described them this way:

"1. An ordinance was pending in council providing for regulation of coin-operated laundries; the operator of the laundries opposed more stringent provisions of the ordinance was pending in council providing for regulation of coin-operated laundries; the operator of the laundries opposed more stringent provisions of the ordinance. As the result of a contribution of $4,000 to the Democratic Finance Committee made with hope, not just out of good will, the provisions of the ordinance were softened and as so amended, the ordinance was later enacted.

"2. A real estate operator stated that he made a $1,000 political contribution to a political leader in exchange for a guarantee that a zoning ordinance would be enacted. He further stated that a member of council demanded a consideration of $500 for introducing the ordinance.

tween in this transaction, one (John) Fitzpatrick (former council sergeant-at-arms) stated that he was paid $125 a week to remain silent about the matter after disclosure of this transaction was made in the public press."

Fitzpatrick was acquitted by a jury of a conspiracy charge in the case.

Reno Is Close To Ring Crown

Only 10 Tilts Left In World Tourney

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Defending champion Harold Reno of Sabina remained the man to beat as the World Horseshoe Pitching Tournament clanked toward a conclusion today.

With 10 matches left in the 36-game championship round-robin, Reno was on top with a 25-1 record. His lone loss came Tuesday at the hands of also-ran Art Dugle of Chicago, and it breathed hope into two strong challengers. Elmer Hohl of Wellesley, Ont., Canada, with a 25-2 mark, and Paul Focht of Dayton, at 24-2, were in position to catch Reno should he tumble again.

The tourney ended tonight. Also being decided today was the Class B championship. A field of 24 was reduced to six for the round-robin finale: Ralph Lackey, West Middletown; Dick Carpenter, Union City, Ind.-Ohio; Don Owens, Summitville, Ind.; Karl Van Anst, Cayuga, Ind.; Frank Rogers, Waverly, Iowa, and Steve Fennishia, Rochester, N.Y.

The Class C competition wound up Tuesday with a championship for Arner Lindquist of Morgantown, W. Va. He had a 6-1 won-lost record in the finale. Ray Radcliffe of Denver, Colo., had a 64.8 per cent ringer score, and Howard Bryant of Washington Court House a 62.3 percentage, compared to Lindquist's 61.5 per cent, but had to settle for second and third place, respectively.

In an exhibition match, Reno showed Gov. Michael V. DiSalle no mercy — or did he. The score was Reno 51, DiSalle 1.

Hebert Says Par To Win Golf Classic

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Defending champion Jay Hebert, who seems to own a lock and key on the 7,165-yard Firestone Country Club course, predicts an even par 280 will be the winning score in the $50,000 American Golf Classic, which starts Thursday.

Hebert won the PGA title with a 281 on the Firestone course two years ago and posted a 278 in capturing the initial American Classic last August.

"The course is playing beautifully with the greens much better than in former years," declared Hebert after carding a two-over-par 72 in a tuneup round Tuesday. The Louisiana native has failed to crash the winner's circle since last year's classic.

"I have to get reacquainted with this course," Hebert said. He is 21st on the pro list with $18,567 this season.

Tommy Jacobs fired a nifty 65 in a practice round, which included an eagle on the 500-yard par 5 No. 2 hole. Doug Sanders closed with three straight birdies and a 66 after getting a double bogey on No. 9.

Walt Burkemo, Mike Souhak and Jon Gustin also broke par with 69s, while Howie Johnson, Lionel Hebert, Dave Ragan and Paul Bondeson matched par with 70s.

CHS Grid Tickets Will Go on Sale

Circleville High School football season tickets will go on sale here Friday and Saturday.

Paul Sarchet, faculty manager, said the tickets will be sold in front of Benny's Restaurant from 5 to 9 p. m. on Friday and all day Saturday. Sales will be conducted inside the restaurant in case of rain.

Sales this year will be handled by the CHS Stogie Club. Sarchet is club adviser.

Two Playoff Games Slated for Tonight

The first game of the Babe Ruth Minor playoffs, between Ashville and Third National has been rescheduled for 8 p. m. today at Ted Lewis softball diamond, according to Lee Smith, Secretary of the Youth Baseball Program.

The second game of the Mosquito League playoffs is scheduled for 6 p. m. immediately preceding the Babe Ruth game.

240 Golfers To Tee Off In Ohio Publix Test

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Play starts today in the annual Ohio Public Links Invitational Championship over the new par-72, 6,685-yard Oakhurst Country Club course.

A field of about 240 is starting the three-day grind, expected to be one of the toughest tests in the tournament history. The 72-hole medal play competition begins with qualifying 18-hole rounds today and Thursday, and the 60 low scorers go into Friday's 36-hole marathon finish.

Duke has won the Atlantic Coast Conference golf title the last two years.

Robby Cool On Houston, But Homers

HOUSTON (AP) — Frank Robinson doesn't think much of Houston's new baseball stadium. He says it cramps his hitting style.

But from his performance Tuesday night, it looks like it just takes him a while to get used to the lighting.

Robby's 22nd season homer, a mighty poke clear into the left field stands, added the icing to Cincinnati's 3-0 shutout of the Houston Colts.

Robinson had been a little short-tempered before the game, saying, "I'll start hitting here in Houston when they turn the lights on. 'This is the worst lit park in the league. It's terrible.'"

The first two times he was up, he struck out. The third time he flied out. But on the final try, in the eighth, he connected squarely.

Joey Jay (17-9) kept the Colts under control with four-hit pitching.

The Reds' fourth two markers Jerry Lynch led off with a single and Gordie Coleman banged a homer into the right field stands.

The Reds named Joe Nuxhall (1-0) to face Bob Bruce (6-6) tonight.

USE THE CLASSIFIEDS

GIVING OPPOSING PITCHERS THE DEVIL—An Angel, at that, Leon Wagner is giving opposing pitchers the devil this season as he leads the A.L. in home runs and runs-batted-in. Wagner has hit 23 round-trippers to keep his club in the pennant race.

Kubek Faces Work To Get Old Job Back

NEW YORK (AP) — Tony Kubek, who celebrated his return from a nine-month Army hitch with a three-run homer the first time he stepped the plate, will not automatically reclaim his shortstop job with the New York Yankees.

"Tom Tresh has done valuable work for us all year," said Yankee Manager Ralph Houk today. "I would like to use Kubek and Tom in every game. I have not decided how to do that, so it will be on a day-to-day basis."

As if to underline Houk's words, rookie Tresh himself blasted two home runs and a single in the Yankees' 14-1 rumble over Minnesota Tuesday. The victory lengthened the Yanks' lead to five games over the second-place Twins.

Kubek, usually a taciturn bloke, couldn't have been happier at the turn of events.

"I used to think of what would happen when I got back to playing with the Yanks again during those months in service," he said. "I wasn't exactly worried. But common sense told me a fellow who hadn't had any spring training could be rusty."

"Then Ralph told me to play left field. I saw we were facing Camilo Pascual. That didn't encourage me any. He has perhaps the best curve in the American League."

But Kubek caught a low curve on a 0-1 pitch and deposited it into the lower right field stands in the first inning. In his other three times at bat, he also got good wood on the ball on long out-field flies.

Winged Demon Stock Up For Hambletonian Trot

Sugarfoot returned $11.80 for place and third-place Broadway Bud was worth $3.20.

Indians To Face Boston's Conley

BOSTON (AP) — Suddenly it's spring again for the Cleveland Indians, who have a good chance to win three in a row for the first time in more than a month.

Dick Donovan (15-4), shooting to become the first Cleveland hurler to win 20 games since 1956, faces Boston's Gene Conley (9-10) in tonight's game.

The Indians swept two from Detroit to close out their longest home stand of the season with only five victories and nine defeats.

Doe Edwards, with a home run, double and two singles in four trips, led Cleveland to Tuesday's 4-2 triumph over the Tigers. Jim Grant (5-4) won his first game since June 15, with a strong relief job from Pedro Ramos.

Michigan State's football game with North Carolina will mark the first time since 1950 that the Spartans have played a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Jets Drop 3rd Game to Leafs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Mike Krsnich must think he has arrived in an angel - less, wingless heaven.

Since joining Toronto from Louisville of the American Association, the 30-year-old outfielder has compiled a .339 batting average and personally has won two of his club's last three games.

Sunday he hit a homer to win the second game against the Columbus Jets. Earlier, he had tied the first game with a last-gasp homer.

Tuesday night he belted another homer in the eighth, which proved to be the winning run in Toronto's 6-5 victory over the Jets.

At the time, his homer pushed the Leafs into a 6-4 lead, but the Jets got a run in the ninth. Bill Kunkel got credit for the victory. He went eight innings but needed help from Ron Piche in the ninth.

Elsewhere, Jacksonville split a doubleheader with Syracuse, losing the first 6-2 and winning the second 7-3; Rochester clubbed Atlanta 7-2 in the first game but lost the nightcap 6-5, and Buffalo turned back Richmond 5-3, only to drop the second game 7-4.

Reno Is Close To Ring Crown

Only 10 Tilts Left In World Tourney

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Defending champion Harold Reno of Sabina remained the man to beat as the World Horseshoe Pitching Tournament clanked toward a conclusion today.

With 10 matches left in the 36-game championship round-robin, Reno was on top with a 25-1 record. His lone loss came Tuesday at the hands of also-ran Art Dugle of Chicago, and it breathed hope into two strong challengers. Elmer Hohl of Wellesley, Ont., Canada, with a 25-2 mark, and Paul Focht of Dayton, at 24-2, were in position to catch Reno should he tumble again.

The tourney ends tonight.

Also being decided today was the Class B championship. A field of 24 was reduced to six for the round-robin finale: Ralph Lackey, West Middletown; Dick Carpenter, Union City, Ind.-Ohio; Don Owens, Summitville, Ind.; Karl Van Anst, Cayuga, Ind.; Frank Rogers, Waverly, Iowa, and Steve Fennishia, Rochester, N.Y.

The Class C competition wound up Tuesday with a championship for Arner Lindquist of Morgantown, W. Va. He had a 6-1 won-lost record in the finale. Ray Radcliffe of Denver, Colo., had a 64.8 per cent ringer score, and Howard Bryant of Washington Court House a 62.3 percentage, compared to Lindquist's 61.5 per cent, but had to settle for second and third place, respectively.

In an exhibition match, Reno showed Gov. Michael V. DiSalle no mercy — or did he. The score was Reno 51, DiSalle 1.

Cannon Renews $100,000 Pact

HOUSTON (AP)—Billy Cannon extended his contract with the American Football League Champion Houston Oilers through the 1965 season today by signing a new three-year contract for more than $100,000.

It was the second $100,000-plus contract for the former All-America halfback since he won the Heisman Trophy at Louisiana State in 1959.

The document tacks three more years on the 1960 contract that prompted a court fight between the Oilers and the Los Angeles Rams of the rival National Football League.

Hebert Says Par To Win Golf Classic

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Defending champion Jay Hebert, who seems to own a lock and key on the 7,165-yard Firestone Country Club course, predicts an even par 280 will be the winning score in the $50,000 American Golf Classic, which starts Thursday.

Hebert won the PGA title with a 281 on the Firestone course two years ago and posted a 278 in capturing the initial American Classic last August.

"The course is playing beautifully with the greens much better than in former years," declared Hebert after carding a two-over-par 72 in a tuneup round Tuesday.

The Louisiana native has failed to crash the winner's circle since last year's classic.

"I have to get reacquainted with this course," Hebert said. He is 21st on the pro list with $18,567 this season.

Tommy Jacobs fired a nifty 65 in a practice round, which included an eagle on the 500-yard par 5 No. 2 hole. Doug Sanders closed with three straight birdies and a 66 after getting a double bogey on No. 9.

Walt Burkemo, Mike Souhak and Jon Gustin also broke par with 69s, while Howie Johnson, Lionel Hebert, Dave Ragan and Paul Bonadeson matched par with 70s.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Play starts today in the annual Ohio Public Links Invitational Championship over the new par-72, 6,685-yard Oakhurst Country Club course.

A field of about 240 is starting the three-day grind, expected to be one of the toughest tests in the tournament history.

Robby Cool On Houston, But Homers

HOUSTON (AP)—Frank Robinson doesn't think much of Houston's new baseball stadium. He says it cramps his hitting style. But from his performance Tuesday night, it looks like it just takes him a while to get used to the lighting.

Robby's 22nd season homer, a mighty poke clear into the left field stands, added the icing to Cincinnati's 3-0 shutout of the Houston Colts.

Robinson had been a little short-tempered before the game, saying, "I'll start hitting here in Houston when they turn the lights on. 'This is the worst lighted park in the league. It's terrible.'"

The first two times he was up, he struck out. The third time he flew out. But on the final try, in the eighth, he connected squarely.

Joey Jay (17-9) kept the Colts under control with four-hit pitching.

The Reds' other two markers came in the fourth inning when Jerry Lynch led off with a single and Gordie Coleman banged a homer into the right field stands.

The Reds named Joe Nuxhall (1-0) to face Bob Bruce (6-6) to-night.

Kubek Faces Work To Get Old Job Back

NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Kubek, who celebrated his return from a nine-month Army hitch with a three-run homer the first time he stepped the plate, will not automatically reclaim his shortstop job with the New York Yankees.

"Tom Tresh has done valuable work for us all year," said Yankee Manager Ralph Houk today. "I would like to use Kubek and Tom in every game. I have not decided how to do that, so it will be on a day-to-day basis."

As if to underline Houk's words, rookie Tresh himself blasted two home runs and a single in the Yankees' 14-1 rumble over Minnesota Tuesday. The victory lengthened the Yanks' lead to five games over the second-place Twins.

Kubek, usually a taciturn bloke, couldn't have been happier at the turn of events.

"I used to think of what would happen when I got back to playing with the Yanks again during those months in service," he said. "I wasn't exactly worried. But common sense told me a fellow who hadn't had any spring training could be rusty."

"Then Ralph told me to play left field. I saw we were facing Camilo Pascual. That didn't encourage me any. He has perhaps the best curve in the American League."

But Kubek caught a low curve on a 0-1 pitch and deposited it into the lower right field stands in the first inning. In his other three times at bat, he also got good wood on the ball on long outfield flies.

Winged Demon Stock Up For Hambletonian Trot

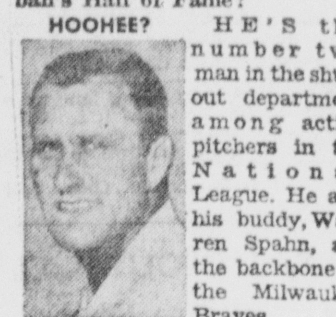

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Winged Demon boosted his stock as a contender in the $150,000 Hambletonian Stakes at DuQuoin, Ill., late this month with a convincing victory at Scioto Downs Tuesday night. He scored in 2:04 for the featured C-1C2 handicap mile and paid $4.

Sugarfoot returned $11.80 for place and third-place Broadway Bud was worth $3.20.

Indians To Face Boston's Conley

BOSTON (AP)—Suddenly it's spring again for the Cleveland Indians, who have a good chance to win three in a row for the first time in more than a month.

Dick Donovan (15-4), shooting to become the first Cleveland hurler to win 20 games since 1956, faces Boston's Gene Conley (9-10) in tonight's game.

The Indians swept two from Detroit to close out their longest home stand of the season with only five victories and nine defeats.

Doc Edwards, with a home run, double and two singles in four trips, led Cleveland to Tuesday's 4-2 triumph over the Tigers. Jim Grant (5-4) won his first game since June 15, with a strong relief job from Pedro Ramo.

Michigan State's football game with North Carolina will mark the first time since 1950 that the Spartans have played a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Jets Drop 3rd Game to Leafs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Mike Krsnich must think he has arrived in an angel-less, wingless heaven.

Since joining Toronto from Louisville of the American Association, the 30-year-old outfielder has compiled a .339 batting average and personally has won two of his club's last three games.

Sunday he hit a homer to win the second game against the Columbus Jets. Earlier, he had tied the first game with a last-gasp homer.

Tuesday night he belted another homer in the eighth, which proved to be the winning run in Toronto's 6-5 victory over the Jets.

At the time, his homer pushed the Leafs into a 6-4 lead, but the Jets got a run in the ninth. Bill Kunkel got credit for the victory. He went eight innings but needed help from Ron Piche in the ninth.

Elsewhere, Jacksonville split a doubleheader with Syracuse, losing the first 6-2 and winning the second 7-3; Rochester clubbed Atlanta 7-2 in the first game but lost the nightcap 6-5, and Buffalo turned back Richmond 5-3, only to drop the second game 7-4.

Los Angeles 3, Boston 1. Well, better luck next time, Mike.

Elsewhere in the American League, the New York Yankees shoved Minnesota five games behind with a 14-1 pasting. Ray Herbert pitched the Chicago White Sox to a 4-0 win over to Baltimore Orioles. The Cleveland Indians trimmed the Detroit Tigers 4-2, and the Kansas City Athletics trounced the Washington Senators 10-3 in the only night game on the card.

Don Drysdale got his 21st win as the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the New York Mets, 7-5. The San Francisco Giant hung on 4 1/2 games back, by beating the Philadelphia Phils, 4-2. Cincinnati beat Houston 3-0. St. Louis knocked off Pittsburgh 5-0 and Milwaukee beat the Chicago Cubs, 4-1.

The Yankee-Twins game was played between two violent rain storms that came too early and too late for the Minnesota team. Tony Kubek, in his first time at bat since he returned from nine months of Army duty, smashed a three-run homer that capped a five-run Yankee first inning.

Camilo Pascual (15-7) was the victim, as the Yankees snapped a three-game losing streak. Ralph Terry (16-9) got the victory.

Herbert, the winner in the second All-Star game, was overpowered against the Orioles. He had a perfect game until he walked Dick Hall in the sixth, and a no-hitter until Russ Snyder opened the seventh with a single. Herbert allowed three hits in all.

The White Sox got all their runs on five singles in the fourth, with Al Smith and Camilo Carreon each collecting a two-run hit.

Catcher Doc Edwards, subbing for the slumping John Romano, contributed a homer, a double and two singles to the Indian cause, as Jim Grant posted his first victory since June 15, with relief help from Pedro Ramos, Chuck Essegian also had a homer for Cleveland. Steve Boros clouted his 10th homer for the Tigers and his fourth in two games.

There was no reason to go to the bullpen in Kansas City, where Bill Fischer pitched his third straight complete game. It was also the third straight complete job for the once downtrodden Athletics.

Board Names 28 To Committee on Planning, Zoning

An Advisory Committee of 28 persons has been appointed by the Pickaway County Board of Commissioners to study county planning and zoning.

Named temporary chairman of the committee was Russell C. Palm. The group will serve as a fact-finding unit and compile information in the county's future effort to bring about planning and zoning.

Fifteen of those appointed, including Palm, were recommended by the Farm Bureau which has been promoting a planning and zoning effort in the county. The other 13 named by the Commissioners are Clyde Michel, Lloyd Melvin and Charles Morris.

The latter group was drawn from townships within the county in an effort to come up with an equal

Ironton Area May Get Huge Smokestack

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—People and business—may be looking up in the Ironton area before too long if the Federal Aviation Agency grants the Ohio Power Co. permission to build a 600-foot-high smokestack along the Ohio River in Lawrence County.

The catch is that even if granted the authority, Ohio Power may decide not to go ahead with the project which would be part of a huge electrical generating plant.

The firm, based here, announced that it has applied to the FAA for permission to erect the stack, right across the river from a municipal airport in Kentucky, and that the FAA has scheduled a hearing at Jamaica, N.Y., Aug. 22.

But Ohio Power hastened to explain that the application does not mean any construction is planned in the immediate future. A company spokesman said clearance is being sought so there would be no delay in the event the project does materialize. FAA approval of the stack would stand for 18 months and could be renewed.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and other officials have been trying to encourage Ohio Power to build the generating plant. When, and if, built it would be in the 600,000 to 800,000 kilowatt range and might run to $20 million. DiSalle sees such an installation as a great magnet for industry in the Ironton area and as providing jobs in the coal industry as well as on the power project itself.

Ohio Power bought considerable acreage in Lawrence County some years ago but has not developed it. The spokesman said before anything is done a survey and negotiations with industries as possible power consumers would have to be completed.

Ohio Power said operators and users of the small, one-strip airport across the river probably will object to the smokestack proposal during the FAA hearing. But the company spokesman said only a few planes use the air-strip and said hopes are that the FAA would see clear to permit revision of takeoff and landing patterns to maintain safety.

and fair representation.

Township representatives are: John Fissell, Circleville; Maxwell Graham, Darby; Earl Anderson, Deer Creek; Ed Pritchard, Harrison; Paul Thompson, Jackson; Kenneth Shell, Monroe; Homer Long, Perry; Hoyt Timmons, Pickway; Carl Anderson, Salt Creek; John Beavers, Scioto; Ernest Barr, Walnut; Howard L. Cupp, Wayne; and Noah A. List, Muhlenberg.

Both the county and Circleville now have planning programs under study. Both divisions have conducted several meetings to lay the groundwork for possible future enactment.

Many advocates have suggested a combined city-county outline as a means of obtaining a regional program. This segment contends that this type of planning could be accomplished at less cost.

One of the main centers of debate has been whether or not to seek Federal aid in setting up a comprehensive, workable master plan. Proponents currently seem to be split on this issue.

Circleville Mayor Richard Penn, a leading advocate for a city master plan, has voiced approval of Federal Aid. However, his present stand leans toward a more comprehensive study of the various and complicated steps in a planning project.

Business Briefs

The board of directors of Marathon Oil Company (formerly The Ohio Oil Company) today declared a dividend of 40 cents per share payable Sept. 10, 1962, to shareholders of record at the close of business Aug. 17, 1962.

Employees of General Telephone Co. of Ohio's central division have the best driving record in the company's statewide organization.

E. F. Egg of Marion, division manager, said that a recently released safety report lists only one accident involving central division personnel. Some 462,000 miles were driven by employees within central and north-central Ohio during the first six months. Eighty-three company vehicles were assigned to this area.

Statistics of automotive driving records are kept as a part of General Telephone's continuing safety program. This program emphasizes safe driving habits and encourages employees to be safety-conscious on the job, he noted.

Included in the central division are the cities or villages of Circleville, Amanda, Ashville, Baltimore, Laurelville, Millersport, Pleasantville, and Williamsport.

Marion, Arlington, Bettsville, Bloomville, Catawba, Forest, Gibsonburg, Green Camp, Harpster, Helena, LaRue, Mechanicsburg, Morral, Mt. Blanchard, Nevada, Plain City, Prospect, Rawson, Republic, Resaca, Richwood, Waldo, Wharton and Woodstock.

Pickaway County Children's Home Schedules Open House

There will be an open house at the Pickaway County Children's Home Aug. 26 from 1 to 7 p. m. The event has been approved by the child welfare board composed of Keith Wagner, Roy White, Harry Melvin, Mrs. Helen Hedges and Judge Guy Cline, according to Winfield Koch, superintendent of the home.

The home is located on Route 22 about four miles northeast of Circleville. It is on a 129-acre farm, 99 acres of which are tillable.

There are 37 children in the home — 22 girls and 15 boys.

Staff members at the home, other than Koch are his wife, who is the matron of the home, Mrs. Helen Davis and Mrs. Olive Knox, house parents, Miss Sylvia Cradlebaugh, laundress, Ernest Pennington, farm manager and Bernice Pennington, cook.

DUTIES of the personnel at the home include providing for the care and well being of the children assigned to the home, supervising the operation of the farm and the purchasing of necessary supplies and equipment.

Each year Koch submits a budget to the budget commission. The County Commissioners make the necessary appropriations to provide funds for operation of the home.

Children are assigned by the executive secretary of the Child Welfare Board. The home is certified by the state to provide for children from the age of six to 18 years of age and to provide care for a maximum of 35 children. The home is presently two over that quota.

The children attend public schools, most of them going to either Washington Twp. School or Logan Elm High School.

The youngsters take an active part in all work projects, according to Koch.

Refreshments, probably punch and cookies, will be served during the open house and the children will have booths set up outside to sell various useful articles. The income derived will be used for their personal spending money.

KOCH said proceeds will be put in a pot. At Christmas each child is given money to buy Christmas presents. The money also pays for excursions to athletic events, dancing, movies, skating and other personal recreation or entertainment.

The Child Welfare Board recently authorized the youngsters to sell

Parking . . .

Since then directors of the Parking Lot Corporation have been busy seeking ways and means of obtaining funds for expansion of facilities.

CORPORATION spokesmen have voiced the opinion that expanded facilities will be a step in the right direction to help remedy at least a portion of Circleville's parking problem.

Again citing the present lot as an example, they said the off-street facility has all the earmarks of being self-sustaining. Meter collections showed receipts of $2,062.50 in 1959, the lots first year of operation; $2,586.35 in 1960; and $2,642.30 in 1961.

"This represents a successful utilization of the lot by motorists," the officials noted. "The original debt will soon be paid off at this rate," they added.

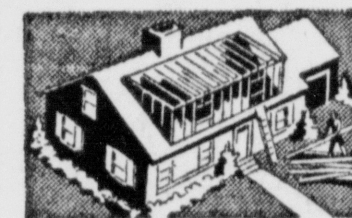

Both Burns and Schieber pointed to heavy use of the Main-Franklin lot on Friday and Saturday when many times the lot is filled to capacity. They said additional spaces would lighten the strain and be a step in perhaps adding even more facilities in the future.

Officers of the Parking Lot Corporation are Paul Johnson, president; Burns, vice president; Schieber, secretary; and Harry Clifton Jr., treasurer.

Paul Brown is finance director for the organization. Also on the board of directors are Ben Gordon, Phil Smith, George Fuhrman and Charles Boggs. There is a current total of 45 stockholders in the corporation.
